STEP 7: Employer Acknowledgement

This section must be completed by the EMPLOYER if the employee is contributing or stopping salary deferrals, or if there is a Qualified Student Loan Payment arrangement in place, as indicated in STEP 4.

The employer agrees to deduct the requested salary deferrals, as indicated in STEP 4 of this form, and to remit the salary deferral contributions to FCMM as soon as reasonable for the proper administration of the Plan, an example of reasonable is no later than the 15th business day of the month following the month of deduction. If STEP 4 indicates a request to STOP all deferrals, the Employer agrees to cease salary deferral deductions from the employee's paycheck as soon as administratively feasible. If STEP 4 indicates the employee will be making Qualified Student Loan Payments (QSLPs), the Employer agrees to deem the QSLPs as salary deferrals, once certified by the employee, for purposes of a matching contribution arrangement. QSLP contribution arrangements must be included in the Employer's Adoption Agreement. The Employer signature below acknowledges receipt and acceptance of this agreement.

NOTE: All checks must come from the Employer. FCMM cannot receive personal checks. Membership becomes effective upon receipt of first employer check.

Free Church Ministers' & Missionaries' Retirement Plan

901 East 78th Street, Minneapolis, MN 55420-1300 (800) 995-5357 | fcmmbenefits.org

FORM 31: INVESTMENT OPTION DESCRIPTIONS

The FCMM Retirement Plan is a 403(b)(9) church retirement income account plan, administered in accord with the tenets and polity of the Evangelical Free Church of America. Information on Fees (Form 41) and Performance of FCMM-managed funds [Options C, D, and E] (Form 40) is available at www.fcmmbenefits.org.

INVESTMENT OPTIONS

FCMM Lifetime Fund (Option C)

This collective fund is managed by investment advisers selected and overseen by the Trustees of FCMM with an investment strategy designed to build steady, consistent long-term performance through a professionally designed asset allocation plan. The rate is determined by the Trustees of FCMM and may be positive or negative in any Plan Year. The current annual rate may be found at the FCMM website; history of rates may be reviewed in Form 40. When eligible for distributions, one may apply the full value of this fund towards a Monthly Income Benefit ("annuity"). If funds are withdrawn or transferred to other Retirement Plan investment Options, a Fair Market Value adjustment will be applied if the accrued value is greater than current market value. Because of the long-term nature of this Option, funds in Option C can be transferred to other Options only once in a 12-month period. FCMM funds do not directly invest in securities in which the corporate entity is recognized by FCMM to have significant involvement in products, services, or activities that are incompatible with the moral and ethical tenets and values of the Evangelical Free Church of America. These positive values include pro-family and prolife matters, and exclude substantial investment in industries of beverage alcohol, tobacco, pornography, gambling, and abortion.

FCMM Managed Stock Fund (Option D)

This fund is comprised of a diversified stock portfolio managed by investment advisors selected and overseen by the Trustees of FCMM. It is generally more aggressive in approach than Option C, with fund values reflecting market gains and losses. It offers the potential of a greater average return over the years while also carrying more risk and volatility. FCMM funds do not directly invest in securities in which the corporate entity is recognized by FCMM to have significant involvement in products, services, or activities that are incompatible with the moral and ethical tenets and values of the Evangelical Free Church of America. These positive values include pro-family and pro-life matters, and exclude substantial investment in industries of beverage alcohol, tobacco, pornography, gambling, and abortion.

FCMM Managed Bond/Income Fund (Option E)

This fund invests in a broadly diversified bond portfolio of short, intermediate and long-term municipal, federal, foreign and high-quality corporate bonds, and other income investments. It is managed by investment advisors selected and monitored by the Trustees of FCMM. Option E can gain or lose value depending on the economic climate. For the investor who would like some portion to track with the bond market, this fund provides the opportunity to do so without requiring specific choices. FCMM funds do not directly invest in securities in which the corporate entity is recognized by FCMM to have significant involvement in products, services, or activities that are incompatible with the moral and ethical tenets and values of the Evangelical Free Church of America. These positive values include pro-family and pro-life matters, and exclude substantial investment in industries of beverage alcohol, tobacco, pornography, gambling, and abortion.

Self-Selected Mutual Funds (Options F, G & J)

These options allow a participant to allocate contributions to mutual fund choices managed by American Funds (Option F), Vanguard Funds (Option G), and/or Biblically Responsible Funds (Option J: Timothy Plan Funds, GuideStone Funds, Eventide Funds). FCMM employs an investment adviser for complementary consultation for those investing in American Funds or Biblically Responsible Funds. Vanguard Funds are best utilized by the highly engaged investor or one who retains the service of an adviser. Timothy Plan, GuideStone, and Eventide Funds are screened to avoid investment in abortion, pornography, alcohol, tobacco, casino gambling, anti-family entertainment, and alternative lifestyles.

Adjustable Rate Investment (Option H)

This option allows participants to invest in an adjustable interest rate Investment Certificate with Christian Investors Financial ("CIF"). The rate can be adjusted by CIF the first of any month. CIF provides real estate loans to EFCA affiliated churches and ministries, so in addition to earning a competitive rate of interest and providing for capital preservation, your investment dollars in this option will also help expand EFCA ministries. Prospective Investors should refer to CIF's 403(b) Offering Circular and Interest Rate Sheet at https://christianinvestors.org/403b for risk factors and other information needed to make an informed investment decision.

Eligible clergy participants may benefit from the "housing allowance" tax benefit on retirement benefits paid from any of the above investment fund selections.

CONTRIBUTION TYPES

Employer Contributions

Employer contributions are considered "tax deferred" by the IRS and thus do not appear on an employee's Form W-2. Such contributions become subject to taxes when an individual begins to draw on his or her Plan account at retirement, unless eligible for exclusion as "housing allowance." A participant can choose to have these funds deposited into any of the Options and in whichever percentage breakdown he or she chooses.

Employer contributions can be invested in all available investment options.

Employee Contributions

All participants in the Plan are allowed to defer a portion of their salaries. This is done through a Salary Deferral Arrangement whereby a certain amount is withheld from one's salary and sent on by the employer to FCMM. This money can be treated as tax deferred or Roth. Clergy do not have to pay either income or social security taxes (SECA) on a tax deferred contribution amount and can receive distributions from the Plan designated as "housing allowances" in retirement. Lay staff participants do not have to pay income taxes on tax deferred salary deferrals now. Such amounts will be taxed when distributed from the Plan. Lay staff does pay FICA taxes on these funds.

Employees may designate all or a portion of their salary deferral contributions as Roth contributions. Roth contributions are taxed when deferred to the Plan but such amounts and earnings thereon are distributed tax-free if the distribution request occurs at least 5 calendar years after the initial Roth contribution was made and the participant is age 59 ½ or older.

Employee contributions can be invested in all available investment Options.

IRS Contribution Limits apply. Please the FCMM website for more information.

RETIREMENT BENEFIT OPTIONS

The Retirement Plan offers several methods for the participant to receive accumulated funds. They include in-plan Monthly Income Benefit ("annuity"), recurring monthly cash withdrawals, one-time or occasional cash withdrawals, and cash withdrawals to meet IRS Required Minimum Distributions. See Form 36 Monthly Income Benefit Description at www.fcmmbenefits.org for more information.

FCMM Privacy Notice

FCMM Benefits & Retirement (FCMM) offers multiple benefit programs serving employers and their employees. FCMM collects data from you and/or your employer that is needed to establish enrollment, administer your account(s), follow legal requirements, and prepare for your or your beneficiary's future benefits within a given program. This notice describes FCMM's policies for collecting your data and how we keep it secure.

What information does FCMM collect?

The data we collect varies depending upon the benefit program(s) in which you participate and may include:

- Name, date of birth, social security number or other tax identification number, citizenship status, marital status, address, phone, email
- Employment status, compensation, payroll data, hire date, housing allowance eligibility
- Investment selections, contribution amounts, tax status of contributions, deferral elections
- Account transactions including asset transfers, rollovers, distributions, benefit requests and claims
- Information and verifications related to processing of benefits or other participant requests such as: Beneficiary information, bank account details, statements for other retirement accounts
- Verifications related to changes in personal status or contact information such as: contact information, housing allowance eligibility, employment status, marital status including divorce and death of spouse, disability status, name changes, and the effective dates of any of these changes.
- Communication between you (or a person you have authorized to speak on your behalf) and FCMM —Including email, phone, mail, and in person communications.
- Website activity: Some of the features accessed via our website may direct the information you provide to a third-party service provider in order to utilize the respective feature. Google Analytics is used to collect information about the effectiveness of our website and may include: the time of visit, pages visited, and time spent on website; referring site details; type of web browser and operating system; flash version, JavaScript support, screen resolution, and screen color processing ability; network location and IP address.

Why does FCMM collect this data?

FCMM is considered the Controller of the data we collect. We collect personal information about you to conduct our business, check your identity and comply with laws.

Processing this data is necessary for the purposes of the legitimate interests by FCMM and our third-party service providers. Having this data allows us to answer questions needed to determine your benefits or take certain actions on your behalf. FCMM must have this information to comply with the provisions of the program documents and legal regulations in order to correctly satisfy the terms of our relationship with you.

When processing special category data, such as notices of ill health, FCMM may request explicit consent from the participant, or when needed, from a third-party that has been pre-authorized by the participant to act on their behalf.

If you have submitted personal information about another person (ex: spouse), FCMM will process this data based on the assumption that you obtained their consent for us to do so prior to providing FCMM with their personal information.

What does FCMM do with your data?

Your information may be collected and processed at different times, such as when enrolling in one of our programs, when your data changes, or to administer the operations related to your account. FCMM limits the sharing of information with others and does not sell your information to third-parties.

As the Benefits Board of the Evangelical Free Church of America (EFCA), FCMM has an arrangement with the EFCA to utilize their secure database for establishing accounts and maintaining account data. We also partner with third-parties as necessary to administer your account and/or provide benefits within our different programs. The information shared with these entities is limited to what is necessary to process requests, provide benefits, maintain your account, or to provide access to program features. We require organizations with which we share your information to have privacy standards in place and to use your information only for the limited purpose for which it was shared.

How do you request a correction to your data?

Our goal is to keep participant and employer information accurate and up-to-date. You can access certain information that we collect and maintain by contacting us. You may correct factual errors in your information by calling or sending us a request substantiating the error and offering a proposed correction. To protect your privacy and security, we will take reasonable steps to verify your identity before making corrections.

How long does FCMM keep your data?

FCMM is required by law to keep our books and records available for review by the IRS, this includes participant data. Your information will be kept on file for audit purposes for at least as long as regulatory requirements dictate. Our data retention requirements don't expire upon cancellation or revocation of your account. FCMM must keep participant records on file until all benefits of your account have been paid out AND enough time has passed that FCMM will not be audited on those records. Generally, this means keeping your records for six years after the year your account is terminated.

How does FCMM keep your data secure?

To help prevent unauthorized access, maintain data accuracy, and facilitate the correct use of information, we have put in place physical, electronic, and administrative procedures to safeguard your information. Only authorized employees and representatives are permitted to see and use your information. Those who use your information are required to follow established standards, procedures, and laws. Processed data is stored and maintained electronically within secure databases and/or secure files. Any physical copies of documents related to your account are stored in locked files within the FCMM office.

FCMM is committed to transferring your sensitive data via secure means. FCMM utilizes secure uploads to our third-party service providers. For correspondence from FCMM to our participants, we send communication through fax or a secure file exchange system. FCMM encourages participants to use these same methods when sending us data electronically.
